Foreword

To continuing the dynasty of 24 Tirthankaras, Ascetics, Scholars & Pujya Gurudevshree Kanjishwamiji and with the idea in their mind that 'Realization of Soul is an Art', Shree Kundkund-Kahan Parmarthik Trust, Mumbai established a unique visual art center named 'Guru Kahan Art Museum' at Pujya Gurudevshree Kanjishwami's holy Sadhana-Bhumi, Songadh for the inquisitive adolescent and young generation in 16 April 2018.

With the idea of Art has no language, Guru Kahan Art Museum Songadh has been covered so many Spiritual Subjects, Jain Scriptures and Jain Thoughts in their Outdoor Exhibitions and in Museum as well. With the belief of true Tattvaprachar, Guru Kahan Art Museum Trustees and Team are working to propagate Jain Doctrines in all over the world through the Art Exhibitions devotionally.

Pujya Gurudevshree was a true devotee of Panch Parmeshthis and Digambar Jinshasan and in the glorious presence of Gurudevshree, 33 Panchkalyanak and 33 Vedi Pratishtha have been done in all over India and abroad also. Gurudevshree's impact on Jain Community spread like the wildfire and All Jain Mumukshus have come together to get the knowledge of True Jainism at Songadh. Accordingly, in their Prabhavna yog Hundreds of Panchkalyanakas are occurring in all over world.

This booklet gives a glimpse of Paintings and Sculptures created by more than 50 leading artists from every corner of the country which are impressive, imaginative and creative and by transcending the barrier of languages, this art gives the true message of Jainism.
